Dear Sir;

Referring to ~~your~~ the express-parcel of photographs of casts and statues which you sent to us a few days ago, and to my letter of yesterday thanking you for them:

Mr. Charles H. Howell now tells me that he thinks the photographs are to be paid for.

We are perfectly willing to pay, if payment be in order.

Please let me know whether or not I shall pay, and, if so, how much.

Very respectfully yours,

Dear Sir

Mr MacLeod Curator 2

Corcoran art gallery is certainly correct in his statement. You will remember I left money with you to pay for those I had selected and it was only when the question was raised by another gentleman (who knew they had frequently given photos away), that you wrote to learn if we should be equally firm.

We had better return, prepaid, all but the four I selected, with 75¢ each or $ 3.00

CURATOR OF THE CORCORAN GALLERY OF ART,

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

DEAR SIR;

BECAUSE I WAS NOT ADVISED BY MR. HOWELL OF HIS CORRESPONDENCE WITH YOU ABOUT THE PHOTOGRAPHS, I WAS UNABLE TO UNDERSTAND WHAT I WAS TO DO ABOUT THEM. THEREFORE I HAVE HAD A SOMEWHAT EXTENSIVE CORRESPONDENCE ON THE SUBJECT. ENCLOSED HEREWITH I SEND YOU MR. HOWELL'S LAST LETTER TO ME, WHICH MAKES MY INSTRUCTION COMPLETE.

TO-DAY I SEND YOU BY ADAMS EXPRESS ALL OF THE PHOTOGRAPHS BUT FOUR, AND HEREWITH I ENCLOSE MY CHECK TO YOUR ORDER FOR THREE DOLLARS IN PAYMENT FOR THE PHOTOGRAPHS THAT ARE NOT RETURNED.

WITH MANY THANKS FOR YOUR KINDNESS, AND APPOLOGIES FOR MY MISUNDERSTANDINGS, I REMAIN,

VERY TRULY YOURS,

John Bellangee Cox,

LEIPZIG, DEN March 28th, 1885.

A copy of this letter has been sent with the returned autotypes to Knoedler & Co. New York

Dear Sir,

To day I shall forward to you 1, a roller, registered, containing 119 autotypes of drawings; which will be sold by auction, - 2, a wrapper, containing a catalogue of the drawings and a list of the autotypes.

I beg your pardon, that I have not asked you,
whether you would like to see the autotypes;
the beauty of the drawings and the too short time left to me will perhaps partly excuse me.

If you will not take a look at them, kindly send the roller immediately unwrapped and registered to one of the firms in the U. S., named in the list. All expenses will be duly rendered to you with best thanks.

If you would like to buy the autotypes; please send the amount to myself and the autotypes not chosen to one of the U. S.'s firms of the list.

Yours obediently

BOSTON, April 15, 1885.

Dear Sir:

Your attention is called to a portrait of Daniel Webster, by Chester Harding in 1845, which I have loaned to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, where it hangs (No. 209) in the Allston Room. It was formerly owned by his friend, the late Gen. James Lorimer Graham, of New York City, and represents Mr. Webster in his prime; and from the testimony of numerous friends, I believe that it is no disparagement to the works of other eminent artists to consider that this is the best portrait of Daniel Webster ever painted; while as a work of art, it possesses an especial value as an example of that strength and fidelity of portraiture for which Harding was celebrated.

I trust that you will take an early opportunity to examine it, and if you desire to make its purchase, should be pleased to hear from you.

Yours truly,

G. J. H. Woodbury.

Dear Sir,

I have lately seen a photograph of Charlotte Corday, by Muller, I think, in the Corcoran Gallery, which a gentleman who was lately in Washington has brought with him. I am desirous of getting one of these photographs and beg therefore that you will kindly inform me, in what sizes and at what prices the photograph has been published, and how it can be sent to me safely.

Respectfully yours

Dear Sir,

Enclosed I send a $1.⁰⁰ bill and beg that you will send me a copy of yr photograph of Charlotte Corday of the size of 12 x 16.

Please let the copy you send be of a good color. The same gentleman who showed me the photo. of Charlotte Corday told me also that you had for sale also another photograph from a picture in the C. Gallery, representing - as well as I recollect - soldiers marching down the street by either Meissonnier or a pupil of his; - if I am correct, would you please inform me of the name & subject of the picture & whether the photos are of the same size & prices as those of Char. Corday?

Curator Corcoran Gallery of Art,

Dear Sir:

I beg to express to you and the trustees my sincere thanks for your kindness in exhibiting the paintings of my daughter, Mrs. Gatchell.

I trust that her artistic ability may keep pace with the growth of the Gallery; and that one of her later and more mature productions, may grace the walls of the institution at some future day, Permanently.

Truly Yours,
